- 3.2. Apart from any sums which are stated in the Schedule to be payable in accordance with a specified payment timetable, all sums payable by the Reseller to Experian will be invoiced monthly in arrears. All invoices are payable in cleared funds within 30 days of the date of the relevant invoice by the Reseller. Any such amount shall be payable to Experian as a debt.
- 3.6. All sums referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT or any other similar sales or turnover tax (if applicable); such taxes shall be payable on the same payment terms as apply to the sums to which the taxes relate.

4. NATURE OF THE SERVICES

- 4.1. Experian’s services are not intended to be used as the sole basis for any business decision and are based upon data which is provided by third parties, the accuracy and/or completeness of which it would not be possible and/or economically viable for Experian to guarantee. Experian’s services also involve models and techniques based on statistical analysis, probability, and predictive behaviour. - 5.12 Any audit to be conducted by Experian shall be carried out by a third party (appointed by Experian), if the Reseller reasonably objects to such audit being carried out by Experian. The Reseller shall pay the reasonable costs of the third party audit if such audit identifies non-compliance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 5.13 The Reseller shall promptly (i) audit an End User's compliance with the End User Terms, if Experian notifies the Reseller that it reasonably believes an End User may have breached them, and (ii) provide written details of the outcome of the audit to Experian. - 5.16 Nothing in clauses 5.10 and 5.11 shall require the Reseller to monitor prices or provide any other information which could be used directly or indirectly to fix the prices of the Services.
- 5.17 The Reseller shall conduct such due diligence in relation to all End Users as would be expected of a responsible business and, as a minimum, as is required to comply with Applicable Law. In addition, the Reseller shall conduct any additional due diligence required by Experian from time to time.

- 5.23.1 Where Consumer Duty applies to the Reseller's use of the Services, the Reseller must determine itself (and must ensure that the End User shall determine itself) how to distribute products in a way that supports good consumer outcomes.
 - 5.23.2 Permitted Purpose. The Reseller must use the Services in accordance with the Permitted Purpose and any other provisions relating to use of the Services or restrictions on the use of the Services set out in the Schedule. In addition to the audit rights contained within this Agreement, Experian reserves the right to assess and monitor whether any Reseller (through its own use or use by End User) is in compliance with the Permitted Purpose and any usage rights and restrictions in the Schedule and its obligations under this Agreement. The Reseller shall provide Experian with any materials Experian reasonably requests in order to conduct such an assessment. The Reseller is also obligated to report back to Experian any non-compliances with the Permitted Purpose and any usage rights or restriction and shall ensure that the End User is obligated to notify the Reseller of the same. In the event that in Experian's reasonable judgement the Reseller or any End User's use of the Services is not compliant with the Permitted Purpose, or any usage rights and restrictions set out in the Schedule or the Reseller or any End User is in breach of its obligations in relation to Consumer Duty, the following process applies:
 - 5.23.2.1 Experian will notify the Reseller in writing specifying the non-compliance and grant the Reseller 15 days to remedy any non-compliances and ensure its use of the Services complies with the Permitted Purpose and any usage rights and restrictions.
 - 5.23.2.2 If Experian in its sole discretion judges the Reseller to still be non-compliant after such remediation period set out in Clause 5.25.2.1, Experian reserves the right to suspend the Reseller's use of the Services by serving written notice and grant the Reseller a period of remediation of 28 days after receipt of the suspension notice within which to remedy the non-compliance.
 - 5.23.2.3 In the event of the non-compliance being remedied within the remediation period set out in Clause 5.25.2.2 Experian will lift the suspension. Otherwise, Experian reserves the right to terminate this Agreement immediately by serving written notice to the Reseller in the event that either:
 - 5.23.2.3.1 the non-compliance is not capable of remedy; or
 - 5.23.2.3.2 the non-compliance is capable of remedy and the Reseller has failed to remedy the non-compliance in accordance with the timelines set out in Clause 5.25.2.2 above.
 - 5.23.3 Cross-cutting Rules. The following provisions apply:
 - 5.23.3.1 the parties agree to act in good faith towards retail customers;
 - 5.23.3.2 the parties must avoid causing foreseeable harm to retail customers; and
 - 5.23.3.3 the parties must enable and support retail customers to pursue their financial objectives.
 - 5.23.4 Pricing. The Reseller acknowledges that it is its responsibility to ensure it provides fair value and complies with pricing obligations it has under Consumer Duty and the Reseller confirms it will evidence compliance with PRIN 2A.4 under Consumer Duty.
 - 5.23.5 Monitoring. Experian reserves the right to assess and monitor whether the Reseller is in compliance with Consumer Duty and is providing good outcomes for retail customers. The Reseller must monitor the outcomes retail customers receive from any Experian products, the communications it has with retail customers and the customer support it provides to retail customers. The Reseller agrees to share with Experian any documentation or management information ("MI") the Reseller generates as a result of its outcome monitoring involving Experian products.
 - 5.23.6 Reporting. The following provisions apply:

- 5.23.6.1 if the Reseller or End User identifies that it or another firm in its distribution chain is not delivering good outcomes for retail customers, the Reseller must promptly notify Experian; or
- 5.23.6.2 where either party identifies or becomes aware of a communication produced by another firm in its distribution chain that is not delivering good outcomes for retail customers, it must promptly notify the issue to the relevant firm in the distribution chain (which may include the other party to this Agreement); and
- 5.23.6.3 notwithstanding any suspension of the Services, each party is obligated under Consumer Duty to notify the Financial Conduct Authority if it becomes aware that any other firm in the distribution chain is not or may not be complying with Principle 12 under the Consumer Duty. Each party shall be responsible for its own costs incurred in such reporting.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 6.1. Each party shall, in respect of the Confidential Information for which it is the recipient:
 - 6.1.1. keep the Confidential Information strictly confidential and not disclose any part of such Confidential Information to any person except as permitted by or as required for the performance of the recipient's obligations under this Agreement;
 - 6.1.2. take all reasonable steps to prevent unauthorised access to the Confidential Information;

- 6.3. As a condition of the rights set out in Clause 6.2 the party wishing to exercise the rights must:
 - 6.3.1. ensure that any party to whom it discloses Confidential Information is under an obligation of confidentiality which is substantially the same as set out in this Clause 6 in relation to such Confidential Information; and
 - 6.3.2. procure that such persons observe the restrictions in this Clause 6.
- 6.4. The restrictions in Clause 6.1 do not apply to any information to the extent that it:
 - 6.4.1. is or comes within the public domain other than through a breach of Clause 6.1; or
 - 6.4.2. is in the recipient's possession (with full right to disclose) before receipt from the other party; or

 - 6.4.4. is independently developed by the recipient without access to or use of the Confidential Information; or
 - 6.4.5. is required to be disclosed by law or by a court of competent jurisdiction or by any regulatory body or in accordance with the requirements of any recognised stock exchange.
- 6.5. The parties acknowledge that from time to time the parties may discuss the provision of additional and/or new products and services by Experian to the Reseller and/or that Experian may bid to provide new products and/or services to the Reseller (whether as part of a formal tender process or not). In such circumstances the parties agree that:

 - 6.5.2. references in this Clause 6 to a recipient's obligations and the purposes of this Agreement shall be deemed to refer to the assessment of the provision of goods/services by Experian to the Reseller; and
 - 6.5.3. the recipient shall return to the other party all materials containing the other party's Confidential Information immediately upon demand by the other party.
- 6.6. Where Experian processes Personal Data contained within the Reseller Data, the terms of Clause 5 shall govern such processing and Personal Data contained within Reseller Data shall not therefore be considered Confidential Information for the purposes of this Clause 6.

7. LICENCE AND USE

- 7.1. Experian grants the Reseller a non-exclusive licence to use any Experian Materials provided to the Reseller as part of the Services in the Territory for the Permitted Purpose on any licence terms identified in the Schedule, which shall include the right to sub-licence the use of Experian Materials in writing to an End User as part of the Services, within the Territory solely for the End User Permitted Purpose in accordance with any Documentation, but on condition that the End User complies with the provisions of clauses 7.4.2 to 7.4.5 inclusive. The licence granted under this Clause is made separately in respect of each individual element of the Experian Materials and commences on the day that each such element of Experian Materials is first made available to the Reseller.
- 7.2. The Licence granted under Clause 7.1 will automatically expire on termination of this Agreement for any reason (unless the licence is expressed in the Schedule to be perpetual in which case the licence and any terms relating to the extent and/or exercise of that licence shall remain in force notwithstanding termination of the Agreement, except if termination is by Experian under Clause 11.1)

- 7.5. If, as a result of (a) any changes in Applicable Law (including any reasonable interpretation thereof; (b) any changes in the supply of third party data used in connection with the Services; or (c) a security vulnerability (other than a Personal Data Breach) which Experian reasonably considers may cause consumer harm, Experian considers the Services to have become Affected Services, Experian will be entitled to do one of the following (as applicable) on giving prior written notice to the Reseller (and Experian shall, where possible use reasonable endeavours to give three months written notice):
 - 7.5.1. suspend and modify the Affected Services as necessary; or
 - 7.5.2. procure alternative data, the same as or similar to the data used in the Affected Services; or
 - 7.5.3. terminate this Agreement without liability in respect of those Affected Services.
- 7.6. In exercising its rights under Clause 7.5, Experian will consult with the Reseller, and act reasonably and in a way which is consistent with its treatment of its other Resellers.
