1 Statement of Functions – Goad Portal

Goad Portal is an online site which provides access to Goad maps, data and reports and allows users to make amendments to Goad Plans to create extracts as images or as PDF files.

A user can be set up at various levels of access and can have access to as many plans as they wish. The plans, and functionality, they have access to is dependent on the configuration of their license.

Functionality in the site includes:

- Ability to load any Goad plan which is in their subscription
- Ability to display the plan at 1:1000 or another zoom level
- Ability to change the data shown in the outlet, such as Fascia or Activity
- Ability to pan around the map, using a range of pan and zoom tools
- Ability to search the data within the plan to highlight units
- Ability to colour in or edit units to customise the plan
- Ability to add own company logo
- Ability to add other customisations to the plan such as additional text
- Ability to store imported data into plans, such as rental value
- Ability to create an extract of the selection table in PDF
- Ability to generate and download Goad reports
- Ability to have an administrative user account for users to amend Goad Portal users within their organisation
- Ability to create own plan templates
- Ability to be part of a group, within Goad Portal, allowing the sharing of plans for use across an organisation
